PROPOSALS
BY JOSEPH M. SANDERSON, for publishing by subscription, BIOGRAPHY OF THE SIGNERS
TO THE
Declaration of Independence, ACCOMPANIED WITH PLATES; which will be annexed a history of the proceedings of congress during the passage of the law, and the Declaration itself, with fac-simile engravings of the signatures.

By PAUL ALLEN, Esq.
TO THE PUBLIC.
seems a little surprising that amongst so many subjects as have been presented for American Biography, the lives of those who have affixed their signatures to the Declaration of Independence have been looked over or disregarded. The eyes of Americans have dwelt with rapture upon the document that announced to the world that these United Colonies were, and of right ought to be, free, sovereign, and independent states; while we are better acquainted with the handwriting than with the characters of many of those illustrious men who have added their signatures to that immortal republic on the globe, have, with few splendid exceptions, gone to their rest, and it behoves a generous posterity, desirous of their obligations, to preserve their fame. The longer we neglect the memory of so sacred a debt, the more difficult does the payment become.—Traits of individual character are fugitive and evan-escent; and if they are not snatched by the hand of the Biographer, at an early season, from the cold grasp of death, will be lost to the oblivion of the body.— It is not the object of the present attempt, ideal in that profusion of indiscriminate and unparaphrased panegyric, so often and so easily dignified with the name of Biography; we wish to represent the characters they were; they stand in need of no panyric; and we earnestly solicit from the living relations and friends of those republican patriots all the information that will tend to a development of character.
It is the nature of circumstance, and we wish to show the progress of those patriotism from their first resistance of colonial oppression, until they stood forth the noble and undaunted champions of their country's dependence. All this can only be done by a familiar acquaintance with the lives of these men, and whoever of the surviving kinds or relatives will furnish facts and circumstances in their possession to unfold and illustrate their characters, shall be entitled to a copy of the work as a recompense. It is contemplated, wherever it is practicable, further to embellish the medical work with correct likenesses of the subjects of our biography, executed by the most eminent artists in the country. For this purpose we again solicit the assistance of their surviving relatives and friends. If any will transmit to the publisher any engraving or portrait from which a copy may be taken, the original shall be faithfully returned, and shall likewise be remunerated for a copy of the work. In the first number it is proposed to give an account of the Declaration of Independence, from the first draft that was made on the floor of congress until its final passage into a law, a period embracing much curious and secret history; finally, we promise to add to our number the Declaration of Independence itself, with fac-simile engravings of signatures. We have now compendiously stated the objects of our present undertaking, and we hope that it will be unnecessary to mention that no exertions on our part shall be spared.

The public are now in possession of our object, which does indeed seem to be demanded, by the avidity so recently displayed for the possession of the Declaration of Independence, since it is of very little importance to become acquainted with a man's life and writings without a previous knowledge of the Declaration of Independence.

Gone to the Southward or Westward,
A YELLOW WOMAN, called Celia Detcher, in the 23d year of her age, about 5 feet 2 or 3 inches high—marks like moles on the right side of her face, which, with several letters on her left arm, were made with india ink. She is about four months gone in a state of pregnancy—followed her husband, Jim Clark, a yellow man, who was purchased from this place and taken away in company with a large number of slaves, about two week ago, by a man of the name of Basset. It is supposed they have gone to the westward: Celia was born free, and had with her a notarial certificate of her freedom, and description of her person. Her mother, the subscriber, is much afflicted by her manner of going away, and desires that any humane people who may chance to meet with her, will persuade her to return, being apprehensive that when she gets into a strange country, where she will be unknown and out of the reach of her friends and those who would be likely to protect her, attempts may be made by some avaricious and unprincipled persons, to deprive her of her liberty, and sell her for a slave. Should any such attempts be made, fifty dollars reward will be paid to any person who will communicate such information as shall lead to the conviction of the offenders, and the recovery of the woman.
HANNAH DETCHER.
Alexandria, October 6, 1818.

To the Public.
AN unusual sensibility has been excited in the minds of our countrymen by the copper plate engraving of the Declaration of Independence recently published, accompanied by fac-similes of the signatures of those illustrious patriots who framed the document by which our independence was announced to the world. We feel, while we dwell on those signatures, as if we were ushered into the immediate presence of characters so exalted, and we seem for a time to participate in all the emotion which they felt on the approach of so awful a crisis—Hostile armies, desolate fields, towns and cities in conflagration—carnage and death in its most frightful forms appeared in prophetic vision on the one hand, and more than all, the complicated horrors, ignominy and slavery were presented for their acceptance on the other; they deliberated, they paused, they trembled, and at last solemnly appealing to the God of battles, they resolved that the United States were and ought to be free, sovereign and independent. These illustrious patriots, with few solitary exceptions, have now mingled with the common mould—they survive only in their country's glory and in the recollection of a grateful people. But it would be consoling to the present generation, separated as they now are from those patriots, by the intervention of the tomb, to become more intimately acquainted with their revolutionary benefactors. We love to dwell on the features of such men, snatched by the pencil from the oblivion of the grave, and emulate the prominent traits of their biography. Impressed with these ideas, the subscriber proposes, (fruitful encouragement is given, to publish the lives of those patriots in numbers, until the whole is completed. The work will be executed in a style not inferior to any European productions, and the portraits by masters of ac-knowledgeed merit. The biography will be written by Paul Allen, Esq., whose intimacy with the several signers, whose familiarity with the privations and hardships they had to undergo, and whose well known talents will be sufficient to ensure the religiousness of an enlightened people. In the execution of this work, all that the publisher dares to promise is, that he will endeavor to deserve the confidence of his countrymen, and that no exertion on his part will be wanting to prevent an abuse of that confidence. He ventures to solicit the assistance of those gentlemen in possession of authentic facts and anecdotes, by communicating the intelligence that will serve to illustrate the characters and to enrich the biography of those founders of the American Republic.—Those who are in possession of their portraits would enlarge the obligation by a loan of the same.
A prospectus with the terms will be given in a few days.

tice and become responsible for five subscribers, shall receive one copy of the work.

Ten Dollars Reward.
RAN away from the subscriber about the 4th of August, Negro Woman LOUIZA—she is 25 years old, about 5 feet five inches high, and stout; has some of her front teeth out, and is apt to laugh when spoken to; she has a sister Marinda and a mother living in Georgetown, one above Semmes's tavern, and the other on Herring Hill, where she has been harbored for two weeks, and left there to come home, but has not done so. I expect she can be found in Georgetown or Alexandria, where she has many acquaintances. I will give the above reward if brought home, or lodged in jail so that I get her again.

The National Register is a paper which is published, every Saturday, at the city of Washington, in the District of Columbia, and each number contains sixteen pages octavo, in small very legible type. It makes two volumes in the year; and every volume is accompanied with a copious index. The price per annum is five dollars, payable in advance.
The Public Documents, both foreign and domestic; the proceedings of Congress, and authentic news of every description, are regularly inserted therein, and accompanied by critical and explanatory remarks. Its value is also enhanced by occasional reviews of literary works; and all its sentiments are decidedly American, independent of all party considerations. For this work, which is well established, regularly published, and transmitted weekly to subscribers by the mail, the public patronage is respectfully solicited.

New-York, January 27.
LATEST FROM BUENOS AYRES.

By the brig Emeline, Gibson, we learn, at on the 9th of November, a mail from Valparaiso, arrived at Buenos Ayres, bringing advices of the sailing of the first division of the national Chile fleet consisting of the San Martin, of 64 guns, captain Wilkinson; Antar, of 54 guns, capt. Wooster; corvette Checabuco, of 20 guns, and brig Verdun, of 16 guns, bound on a cruise off Cape Horn, as was supposed, for the purpose of intercepting a fleet of transports expected from Spain, and from thence to proceed to the westward, for the purpose of sailing in with some of the Spanish ships of war. The night before the Emeline sailed the Director announced at the Theatre that Alcubana had surrendered to the Patriots of the West.

The new corvette ships Horatio, captain Kinner, and Curiso, capt. Delano, had arrived in 62 days from this port. An unfortunate occurrence took place on board the latter vessel on the night of the 11th Nov. Capt. D. was awake by the report of a pistol, and informed that John I. Bigelow, master mate, had fallen in a duel with Mr. Armand, midshipman, which had been privately concerted. The deceased received a slug over his right eye, which terminated his life in 64 hours. A jury of request was held on the body, who brought a verdict of manslaughter. On the 16th remains were interred in the church of St. Michaels.

The following articles are the substance of an ordinance issued in the Island of Martinique, and dated 5th Nov. 1818:—

Art. 1.—The dispositions of the sixth title of the letters patent of the month of October, 1727, concerning strangers established in the colonies, will be strictly acted upon, according to their form and tenor.

II.—In consequence, strangers established at Martinique, even those that are naturalized, cannot from henceforth remain there as merchants, brokers, or agents in any way and manner whatsoever.

III.—Merchants now established in the colony, are allowed the space of six months from the time of the publication of this ordinance—after which time they are forbidden any commerce and trade whatever.

IV.—All merchants and dealers of the colony are prohibited, after the expiration of the said term, from employing clerks, factors, or book keepers, who are strangers even should they be naturalized.

V.—All contracts, obligations, transactions, or engagements made after the expiration of the said term, with strangers, relative to matters of trade and commerce, either on their own account, or with power of Attorney, even from a French house (save the exception of Art. 6.) shall be null and cannot bind the parties, unless for an arrangement of affairs, or of a commercial copartnership.

VI.—Strangers established in the French colonies, even those naturalized, or hereafter to be naturalized, cannot be merchants, traders, or commercial agents, in any way and manner whatsoever, under a penalty of three thousand livres, to be paid to the informer, and to be forever abolished from the said colonies; only permitting them to hold interest in lands and estates, and to trade with the produce arising from these lands. The space of 3 months is granted to those who are now resident, from the day of the recording of these presents—after which period they are bound to discontinue all trade or merchandise whatsoever, and the offenders subject to the penalties of the preceding article. All merchants and traders established in these colonies, are prohibited from employing any clerks, factors, book keepers, or other persons interested in their commerce, who shall be strangers, should they even be naturalized, hereby ordering them to be dismissed, at the latest in three months from the date of the recording of these presents, under a penalty against the merchants and traders of three thousand livres, to be paid to the informer, and against the clerks, factors, book keepers, and other persons interested in their business to be forever abolished from the said colonies.

VII.—Foreigners who have landed property, houses, stores, or establishments whatsoever, exclusive of commercial property, are not included in this prohibition. They are to enjoy the power of selling the produce arising from their culture, as also produce estates and merchandise necessary for their consumption, and shall continue freely to enjoy their properties, to manage and govern them, either themselves or others on their account, under the same guarantee and protection as the laws and government grant to French proprietors and cultivators.

THE industrious Poor are requested to call at the House of Industry, where they may be furnished with work. ANTHONY CREASE, President.

PORT OF ALEXANDRIA... January 30.

ARRIVED.
Brig Ventrosa, Allen, 11 days from Boston; hemp, sugar, &c. to Lawrason and Fowle.
Schr. Nancy, Younger, and Union, Peters, both 5 days from Norfolk, with cargoes of black-eyed peas, to Wilson Moody on board.

Baltimore, January 29.

ARRIVED.
Schr. Golden Pheasant, Darrell, 23 days from Jacmel. Left schrs. Honor & Amey, for N. York next day; of Charleston. Saw a brig in the bay bound up, and a ship at anchor on New-Point, with a signal flying, supposed Leas Taylor's. Jan. 14th, when the Golden Pheasant was standing for Crooked Island, at one o'clock P. M. discovered a large brig standing out from under the land; at 1 30 P. M. the brig within pistol shot distance on our weather bow, fired a 32 pound shot, which passed between our main rigging and mainmast, not more than 10 feet above deck, our color then flying—this shot was evidently fired with an intention to injure us; after this the brig ran down, hailed and ordered us under his lee—a boat then boarded from the brig and informed us it was H. B. M. brig Bellette, capt. Peachell. The owner of the schooner, A. S. Dungan, expressed in very plain terms to the boarding officer, his disapprobation of his conduct; on the return of the officer he made a report to the captain of the brig, who demanded from Mr. Dungan a written apology to his officer—on his refusal, they took him, together with part of his crew on board the brig; put an officer and four men on board the schooner, and ordered her for Bermuda. At 5 P. M. finding it impossible to obtain an apology for what they termed an insult to his Majesty's brig, they brought Mr. Dungan and the seamen on board, and after endorsing our register, suffered us to proceed on our voyage.

Marshall's Sale.

BY virtue of a decree of the court of the United States for the fifth circuit in the Virginia district, in a suit in chancery, wherein Marj Worneley, wife of Hugh Wallace Worneley, by George F. Strother her next friend, and John S. Worneley, Mary W. Worneley, Jane B. Worneley, and Anne B. Worneley, infant children of the said Marj and Hugh W. by the said George F. Strother their next friend, plaintiffs, against Hugh Wallace Worneley, Thomas Strode, Richard Veitch, David Castleman and Charles McCormick, defendants, will be sold at public auction on the third day of February next, if fair, if not, the next fair day, on the premises,

A Tract of Land containing 300 acres, and also, the reversion of fifty acres adjoining the same tract of 300 acres, lying and being in the county of Frederick and state of Virginia, situate on the north side of the Shenandoah river, and adjoining the said river about two miles below Snickers ferry—one hundred acres of which is finely timbered, and the whole tract well watered with a never failing spring; the buildings are an excellent dwelling house, with other suitable outhouses, a good barn, corn house, blacksmith's shop, stable, &c. &c.

This land, I am told, has for the last seven years been highly improved with clover and plaster of Paris; upon the whole it is considered to be one among the best farms in the county, combining all the advantages of good society, salubrity of climate and fertility of soil. Terms of sale will be as follows: three thousand dollars in cash; or a negotiable note with an endorser or endorsers to be approved of by the marshal of the said district, or his deputy who may act, and payable at one of the branches of the Farmers' bank of Virginia at Winchester, and the residue of the purchase money in three equal payments of one, two and three years; the purchaser or purchasers giving bonds and security or securities, to be approved of by the marshal or his deputy, with a deed of trust on the said land so sold, as a further security for the payments of the said bonds.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Potomac creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shade and bearing orchards, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaster acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat; where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary out-house, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abounding with wild fowl, particularly canvas backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Males, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pollock Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.
September 4 GEORGE MASON.

Valuable Property for Sale.
The subscriber is desirous of selling a handsomely situated farm, on Hunting creek, in Fairfax county Virginia, adjoining the Mount Vernon estate and the lands of general Thomson Mason, four miles from Alexandria, containing about 240 acres, 80 of which are in wood—40 to 50 in thriving meadow, of clover and timothy—a part of the residue recently seeded with wheat and rye, and clover, last spring—the whole enclosed with a new post and rail fence.—The improvements are, a comfortable and convenient frame dwelling house and kitchen, smoke house, poultry house, granary and stables.—There is on this place a rich and productive garden, and a large body of marsh meadow, from which may be saved annually 100 tons of hay, nearly as nutritious as the best timothy or clover.—With the farm would be sold a number of very valuable horses, cows and sheep; waggon, carts, and a variety of farming utensils and household and kitchen furniture; corn, oats and rye, and 40 tons hay. Also, adjoining the one above described, a farm containing 160 acres, recently enclosed, on which is a brick house, which a trifling expense would render comfortable. The soil is excellent, and a considerable part might be easily converted into meadow.—It would be sold with the other or separately. Also, a number of valuable servants, male and female. To prevent unnecessary application, he would observe, that they will only be sold to persons residing in the District or its vicinity, and not to be carried from it. The subscriber will also sell the greater part of his household furniture, which is new and handsome. For terms of all or any part of the above property, apply to NORLET HERBERT, junr or FRANCIS ADAMS, Jr.

For Rent.

A very convenient dwelling house on the lower part of Royal-st. adjoining the house now occupied by Mr. Geperes. Possession may be had immediately.

PROPOSALS.

BY JOSEPH M. SANDERSON, for publishing by subscription, A BIOGRAPHY OF THE SIGNERS TO THE Declaration of Independence, ACCOMPANIED WITH PLATES; To which will be annexed a history of the proceedings of congress during the passage of the law, and the Declaration itself, with fac-simile engravings of the signatures.

By PAUL ALLEN, Esq.

TO THE PUBLIC.

IT seems a little surprising that amongst so many subjects as have been presented for American Biography, the lives of those who have affixed their signatures to the Declaration of Independence have been overlooked or disregarded. The eyes of thousands have dwelt with rapture upon the document that announced to the world that "these United Colonies were, and of right ought to be, free, sovereign, and independent states;" while we are better acquainted with the handwriting than with the characters of many of those illustrious men who have added their signatures to that instrument. The founders of the only remaining republic on the globe, have with a few splendid exceptions, gone to their graves, and it behoves a generous posterity, sensible of their obligations, to preserve their fame. The longer we neglect the payment of so sacred a debt, the more difficult does the payment become.—Traits of individual character are fugitive and evanescent; and if they are not snatched by the hand of the Biographic Muse, at an early season, from the cold grasp of death, will soon partake of the oblivion of the body.—It is not the object of the present attempt, to deal in that profusion of indiscriminate and unassuming panegyric, so often and so falsely dignified with the name of Biography; we wish to represent the characters as they were; if they stand in need of no panegyric; and we earnestly solicit from the surviving relations and friends of those revolutionary patriots all the information that will tend to a development of character. Man is the creature of circumstance, and we wish to show the progress of those patriots from their first resistance of colonial aggression, until they stood forth the noble and undaunted champions of their country's independence. All this can only be done by a familiar acquaintance with the lives of these men, and whoever of the surviving friends or relatives will furnish facts and circumstances in their possession to unfold and illustrate their characters, shall be entitled to a copy of the work as a recompense. It is contemplated, whenever it is practicable, further to embellish the meditated work with correct likenesses of the subjects of our biography, executed by the most eminent artists in the country. For this purpose we again solicit the assistance of their surviving relatives and friends. If they will transmit to the publisher any engraving or portrait from which a copy may be taken, the original shall be faithfully returned, and shall likewise be remunerated with a copy of the work. In the first number it is proposed to give an account of the Declaration of Independence, from the first motion that was made on the floor of congress until its final passage into a law, a period embracing much curious and secret history; finally, we promise to add to our last number the Declaration of Independence itself, with fac-simile engravings of the signatures. We have now compendiously stated the objects of our present undertaking, and we hope that it will be unnecessary to mention that no exertions on our part shall be spared.

The public are now in possession of our project, which does indeed seem to be demanded, by the avidity so recently displayed for the possession of the Declaration of Independence, since it is of very little import to become acquainted with a man's hand writing without a previous knowledge of the man. The secret history of our Declaration of Independence, the lives of those who have affixed their signatures to that instrument, accompanied by their likenesses, and finally the Declaration itself, with fac-simile of the signatures, will bring into one compact view the prominent facts of that interesting crisis.

CONDITIONS.

I. The work will be published in numbers, or half volumes, of 150 pages octavo, and will be contained in ten numbers.
II. It will be printed on fine paper made expressly for the purpose, and delivered to subscribers at two dollars and fifty cents per half volume or number, payable on delivery.
Subscriptions will be received at the office of the Alexandria Gazette.
